- enabling contact with the Service Provider via the Contact Form
- enabling submission of an application for No AI Declaration™ via the No AI Declaration™ Application Form
- maintaining and providing access to the Public Registry (only for entities that have consented to publication)
- providing the Verification functionality

3.2. Electronic Services are provided free of charge.

3.3. No AI Declaration™ is currently free of charge.

3.4. The Service Provider reserves the right to develop the Website and add new functionalities. Material changes relevant to Users will be reflected in an updated version of these Terms.

4. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

4.1. To use the Website, the following are required:

- a device with internet access
- an up-to-date web browser
- an active e-mail account (for contact and application handling)

4.2. The Website uses or may use cookies and similar technologies to the extent necessary for proper operation and to the extent determined by the User's consent settings. Detailed information is provided on the Website.

5. RULES OF USING THE WEBSITE

5.1. The User shall use the Website in compliance with applicable law, good practices, and these Terms.

5.2. The User shall refrain from actions that may hinder or disrupt the operation of the Website, in particular:

- attempts to interfere with the code, security measures, or configuration of the Website
- any security testing activities without the Service Provider's prior written consent
- introducing or transmitting malicious software via the Website

5.3. It is prohibited to provide unlawful content, including content that infringes third-party rights, is misleading, or is used to impersonate other entities.

5.4. The User is responsible for the accuracy of data provided in forms and for the consequences of providing such data.

6. CONCLUSION AND TERMINATION OF ELECTRONIC SERVICE

AGREEMENTS

6.1. An agreement for the provision of Electronic Services is concluded:

- for access to Website content, the Public Registry, and Verification – when the User begins using the relevant functionality
- for the Contact Form – when the User sends a message
- for the No AI Declaration™ Application Form – when the User submits an application

6.2. The agreement is terminated:

- for access to Website content, the Public Registry, and Verification – when the User stops using the relevant functionality (leaves the Website)
- for the Contact Form – when correspondence in the given matter is concluded
- for the No AI Declaration™ Application Form – when the application process is concluded, including by:
 - granting No AI Declaration™
 - refusing to grant No AI Declaration™
 - closing the matter after requesting clarification or supplementation, if the User does not respond within a reasonable time indicated by the Service Provider

6.3. The User may stop using Electronic Services at any time by ceasing to use the Website.

6.4. The Service Provider may temporarily suspend access to the Website for technical, organizational, or security reasons.

7. SUBMISSION AND GRANTING OF NO AI DECLARATION™

7.1. Applications for No AI Declaration™ are submitted via the No AI Declaration™ Application Form available on the Website.

7.2. Each application is reviewed and approved manually by VIENS Krzysztof Siporski (operator of No AI Movement™). Submitting an application does not guarantee that No AI Declaration™ will be granted.

7.3. The criteria and conditions for granting No AI Declaration™ follow from the documents and information made available on the Website.

7.4. The Service Provider may:

- approve the application and grant No AI Declaration™
- refuse to grant No AI Declaration™
- request additional information or clarification

7.5. The Service Provider may revoke No AI Declaration™ in cases specified in the No AI Declaration™ documents or where the Service Provider determines that the application contained materially false information.

8. PUBLIC REGISTRY AND VERIFICATION

8.1. The Service Provider maintains a Public Registry of entities granted No AI Declaration™.

8.2. Only entities that have given explicit consent to publication in the No AI Declaration™ Application Form are included in the Public Registry.

8.3. An entity listed in the Public Registry may withdraw consent to publication at any time by contacting the Service Provider. Upon receiving such a request, the Service Provider removes or anonymizes the entry within a reasonable time, taking into account technical limitations and the need to maintain the registry's integrity (including the declaration numbering history).

8.4. Verification consists of making available information allowing confirmation that a given declaration is included in the Public Registry.

8.5. The User acknowledges that the absence of an entry in the Public Registry does not necessarily mean that No AI Declaration™ has not been granted and may result from the lack of consent to publication.

9. NO AI DECLARATION™ MARK

9.1. The No AI Declaration™ Mark may be made available only to entities that have been granted No AI Declaration™, under the rules specified by the Service Provider in the documents and materials available on the Website.

9.2. It is prohibited to:

- use the No AI Declaration™ Mark without having been granted No AI Declaration™
- misrepresent the nature of No AI Declaration™ (in particular, suggesting it is a state, governmental, official, or ISO certificate, unless this follows explicitly from documents made available by the Service Provider)
- modify the No AI Declaration™ Mark in a manner contrary to the rules specified by the Service Provider

10. LIABILITY

10.1. The Service Provider makes reasonable efforts to ensure proper functioning of the Website, however, does not guarantee uninterrupted or error-free operation.

10.2. The Service Provider shall not be liable for:

- technical breaks, failures, or limitations resulting from causes beyond the Service Provider's control
- consequences of providing false or incomplete data by the User
- damages caused by unauthorized use of the Website by third parties due to circumstances beyond the Service Provider's control

10.3. To the fullest extent permitted by mandatory provisions of law, the Service Provider's liability is limited to damages caused intentionally.

11. COMPLAINTS

11.1. The User may submit complaints regarding the operation of the Website, availability of functionalities, and the handling of an application.

11.2. A complaint does not constitute an appeal against the discretionary decision to grant or refuse No AI Declaration™, unless the No AI Declaration™ documents provide a separate procedure.

11.3. Complaints should be submitted:

- by e-mail to: office@noaimovement.com

or

- in writing to: Goździówka 35A, 05-304 Stanisławów, Poland

11.4. A complaint should include at least:

- the name of the person / the entity (if applicable)
- an e-mail address for contact
- a description of the issue and circumstances
- the requested manner of resolution

11.5. The Service Provider will respond to the complaint within 14 days of receipt. If responding within this time is not possible due to the complexity of the matter, the Service Provider will inform the User of the expected response date.

12. PERSONAL DATA

12.1. The controller of personal data processed in connection with use of the Website is VIENS Krzysztof Siporski (operator of No AI Movement™), provided that the role of the controller within the meaning of the GDPR is performed by VIENS Krzysztof Siporski who operates the initiative under the No AI Movement™ brand.

12.2. The principles of personal data processing, including purposes, legal bases, categories of recipients, retention periods and the rights of data subjects, are set out in the Privacy Policy made available on the Website.

13. AMENDMENTS TO THE TERMS

13.1. The Service Provider may amend these Terms for important reasons, in particular:

- changes to Website functionalities or the manner of providing services
- the need to adapt to changes in law
- security reasons

13.2. The amended Terms will be published on the Website together with information about the effective date.

14. FINAL PROVISIONS

14.1. Matters not regulated herein are governed by Polish law.

14.2. These Terms enter into force on the date indicated in the header.
